IV. General Education Requirements (66 - 5).

Mr. Ringenberg was present to discuss recommendations for changes in general education requirements as they pertain to mathematics.

V. Revision of Academic Regulations.

There was discussion of these proposals. A copy of the proposals is attached to these minutes.

The following revisions of academic regulations are proposed for consideration by the Council on Academic Affairs.

It is proposed that the paragraph, "Credit for Courses in Other Colleges" (page 58 of the catalogue) be revised to read as follows, "Advanced standing may be granted for courses passed in other recognized colleges, subject to reduction of the total credit by a number equal to the grade point deficit if the transcript shows a cumulative grade average less than 2.0. (The cumulative average and the grade point deficit are computed in accordance with procedures applied to records in Eastern Illinois University.) Transfer students must meet all requirements listed under "Graduation Requirements".

It is proposed that the paragraph headed "Exclusion" page 63, be revised to read as follows, "A student is dropped for low scholarship (1) if during a quarter on Final Probation he has neither attained good standing nor qualified for "Continued Probation" (2) if after reattaining good standing he fails at any time to maintain good standing, or (3) if at any time his record shows a cumulative grade point deficit greater than twelve. The rules for defining a quarter attended shall be the same as those defined in the section entitled "Good Standing".

It is proposed that the following additional paragraph be inserted:

"Extended Final Probation. A student who during a quarter of final probation reduces his grade point deficit by at least four points will be classified as on extended final probation, and be subject to all of the rules which govern final probation."

The following revision of good standing is proposed, "A student who has attended this university and/or other colleges, full time or part-time, at least one quarter and not more than four quarters is considered in good standing unless he has a cumulative grade point deficit greater than four. A student who has attended this university and/or other colleges full time or part-time a total of four quarters or more is considered in good standing if his cumulative grade point average is 2.0 or higher".

The meeting adjourned at 11:40 a.m.
